

SCHOOL OF PUBLIC HEALTH

UNIVERSITY AT ALBANY State University of New York

Center for Public Health Preparedness

Satellite Broadcast: Thursday, February 3, 2005
9-10 am and rebroadcast 4-5 pm EST

Grand Round Series: Redefining Readiness: Terrorism Planning Through the Eyes of the Public with special guest speaker Roz D. Lasker, M D, Director, Division of Public Health and the Center for the Advancement of Collaborative Strategies in Health at the New York Academy of Medicine.

Objectives: At the conclusion of the presentation, the participants will be able to:

- Describe the methods used for collecting information from the public about terrorism planning.
- Understand the reasons for likely non-compliance of population segments with “top-down” preparedness planning.
- Support the local planning processes by more accurately reflecting concerns and limitations of the affected public.

Who Should Attend: National audience of state and local public health professionals and their partners (e.g., healthcare professionals, EMS personnel, law enforcement, media representatives, etc).

When: Thursday, February 3, 2005
9-10 am EDT and rebroadcast 4-5 pm EDT

Where: University at Albany School of Public Health
George Education Center Auditorium
University at Albany East Campus, Routes 9 & 20 (near Interstate 787 & Downtown Albany).

For additional information please e-mail: cphp@uamail.albany.edu or phone (518) 486-7921. There is no charge for this program. Reservations are requested – please use contact information.